

NTribal
Nations use music to express emotions

A wooden frame
or deer buck skin

EAs a different
Native American

Drums are powerful tools in ceremonies.

Drums help bring individuals together

N These musicians incorporate story telling symbolism and vocables into different	E Powwow drums family linear and sophisticated - privileges these traditions often featured
W Singing dancing celebration drumming pr	S While traditions vary by tribe some types of drums are central to Native American music and culture

Alzoma Prather et al

67

Student/Group: North

Date: _____

Criteria	3 – Exceeds Expectations	2 – Meets Expectations	1 – Developing
Understanding of Topic	Clearly explains the assigned topic and includes multiple accurate details from research. X	Explains the assigned topic with at least one accurate detail from research.	Shows limited understanding or gives few accurate details.
Participation in Discussion	Actively participates, shares ideas, and listens respectfully to others in the group. X	Participates when prompted and listens to others.	Rarely participates or has difficulty listening to others.
Use of Evidence	Uses research or examples to strongly support their argument.	Uses at least one example or fact to support their argument. X	Gives opinions with little or no supporting evidence.
Reasoning/Argument	Clearly explains why their topic is most important and responds to other perspectives. X	Explains why their topic is important.	Gives limited or unclear reasoning.

Student/Group: East

Date: _____

Criteria	3 – Exceeds Expectations	2 – Meets Expectations	1 – Developing
Understanding of Topic	Clearly explains the assigned topic and includes multiple accurate details from research.	Explains the assigned topic with at least one accurate detail from research. X	Shows limited understanding or gives few accurate details.
Participation in Discussion	Actively participates, shares ideas, and listens respectfully to others in the group.	Participates when prompted and listens to others. X	Rarely participates or has difficulty listening to others.
Use of Evidence	Uses research or examples to strongly support their argument. X	Uses at least one example or fact to support their argument.	Gives opinions with little or no supporting evidence.
Reasoning/Argument	Clearly explains why their topic is most important and responds to other perspectives. X	Explains why their topic is important.	Gives limited or unclear reasoning.

Student/Group: South

Date: _____

Criteria	3 – Exceeds Expectations	2 – Meets Expectations	1 – Developing
Understanding of Topic	Clearly explains the assigned topic and includes multiple accurate details from research. X	Explains the assigned topic with at least one accurate detail from research.	Shows limited understanding or gives few accurate details.
Participation in Discussion	Actively participates, shares ideas, and listens respectfully to others in the group.	Participates when prompted and listens to others. X	Rarely participates or has difficulty listening to others.
Use of Evidence	Uses research or examples to strongly support their argument.	Uses at least one example or fact to support their argument. X	Gives opinions with little or no supporting evidence.
Reasoning/Argument	Clearly explains why their topic is most important and responds to other perspectives. X	Explains why their topic is important.	Gives limited or unclear reasoning.

Student/Group: West

Date: _____

Criteria	3 – Exceeds Expectations	2 – Meets Expectations	1 – Developing
Understanding of Topic	Clearly explains the assigned topic and includes multiple accurate details from research. X	Explains the assigned topic with at least one accurate detail from research.	Shows limited understanding or gives few accurate details.
Participation in Discussion	Actively participates, shares ideas, and listens respectfully to others in the group. X	Participates when prompted and listens to others.	Rarely participates or has difficulty listening to others.
Use of Evidence	Uses research or examples to strongly support their argument.	Uses at least one example or fact to support their argument. X	Gives opinions with little or no supporting evidence.
Reasoning/Argument	Clearly explains why their topic is most important and responds to other perspectives. X	Explains why their topic is important.	Gives limited or unclear reasoning.

Student/Group: _____

Date: _____

Criteria	3 – Exceeds Expectations	2 – Meets Expectations	1 – Developing
Understanding of Topic	Clearly explains the assigned topic and includes multiple accurate details from research.	Explains the assigned topic with at least one accurate detail from research.	Shows limited understanding or gives few accurate details.
Participation in Discussion	Actively participates, shares ideas, and listens respectfully to others in the group.	Participates when prompted and listens to others.	Rarely participates or has difficulty listening to others.
Use of Evidence	Uses research or examples to strongly support their argument.	Uses at least one example or fact to support their argument.	Gives opinions with little or no supporting evidence.
Reasoning/Argument	Clearly explains why their topic is most important and responds to other perspectives.	Explains why their topic is important.	Gives limited or unclear reasoning.

Student/Group: _____

Date: _____

Criteria	3 – Exceeds Expectations	2 – Meets Expectations	1 – Developing
Understanding of Topic	Clearly explains the assigned topic and includes multiple accurate details from research.	Explains the assigned topic with at least one accurate detail from research.	Shows limited understanding or gives few accurate details.
Participation in Discussion	Actively participates, shares ideas, and listens respectfully to others in the group.	Participates when prompted and listens to others.	Rarely participates or has difficulty listening to others.
Use of Evidence	Uses research or examples to strongly support their argument.	Uses at least one example or fact to support their argument.	Gives opinions with little or no supporting evidence.
Reasoning/Argument	Clearly explains why their topic is most important and responds to other perspectives.	Explains why their topic is important.	Gives limited or unclear reasoning.